Weekend 2: Legal Nuances & Core Applications (Sept 20–21, 2025)

Day 3: Saturday, Sept 20, 2025

- Module 3A: Voluntary vs. Mandatory Mediation: A Critical Analysis. The distinction between voluntary and court-mandated mediation is a crucial real-world issue. This module addresses a central debate in the field, equipping participants to handle the different dynamics and challenges that arise when parties are at the table by choice versus by legal compulsion.
- Module 3B: Essential Communication and Negotiation Techniques for Mediators. This is the mediator's practical toolkit. Theoretical knowledge has little value without the ability to manage difficult conversations. This module focuses on vital skills like active listening, reframing hostile language, and asking powerful questions, which are essential for navigating emotional deadlocks and facilitating constructive dialogue.

Day 4: Sunday, Sept 21, 2025

- Module 4A: Specialized Focus: Mediation in Family Law. Family disputes are one of the most common and emotionally intense areas of mediation. This specialization is crucial as it addresses the unique sensitivities of divorce, child custody, and inheritance matters, where preserving future relationships is often as important as the legal or financial outcome.

Weekend 3: Commercial & Advanced Mediation (Sept 27-28, 2025)

Day 5: Saturday, Sept 27, 2025

- Module 5A: Mediation for Commercial and Contractual Disputes. This module is key for participants aiming to work in the corporate sector. It delves into high-stakes business conflicts where financial considerations and the preservation of long-term commercial relationships are paramount. Understanding the language and priorities of business is essential for credibility in this field.
- Module 5B: An Overview of Institutional and Online Mediation (ODR) The future of dispute resolution is both institutional and digital. Day 7: Saturday, Oct 4, 2025

- Module 7A: The Art of Drafting the Mediated Settlement Agreement (MSA) The entire mediation effort culminates in this document. A weak or ambiguous MSA can render the entire process meaningless. This highly practical module provides the essential technical skill of translating the parties' verbal consensus into a precise, comprehensive, and legally robust written agreement.
- Module 7B: Legal Framework for the Enforcement of MSAs. An agreement is only as powerful as its enforceability. This module closes the loop by explaining the legal process for making an MSA as binding as a court order under the Mediation Act. It gives participants and their future clients confidence in the finality and authority of the mediated outcome.

Day 8: Sunday, Oct 5, 2025

- Module 8A: Building a Career and Practice in Mediation. This session answers the crucial question: "What now?". - Module 8B: Concluding Session: Panel Discussion with Experts & Future Trends. This capstone module synthesizes the entire course.
